

Personal Strengths Inventory for Depression

When you're dealing with depression, self-criticism often becomes a constant inner voice, making you focus on what you see as flaws or mistakes. This pattern of negative thinking can deepen feelings of sadness and make it harder to feel motivated or see yourself in a positive light.

Creating a personal strengths inventory can be a helpful way to counter self-criticism. By identifying and acknowledging your strengths, you can start to shift your focus from perceived weaknesses to positive qualities. Recognizing and valuing your strengths can boost self-confidence, quiet negative self-talk, and support a healthier, more resilient mindset.

PART 1: Discovering Your Strengths

Take some time to read through the list of attributes carefully and circle at least 6 strengths that you believe apply to you.

Because depression often involves all-or-nothing thinking, you may feel you do not have the strengths below unless you match the description 100%, all the time. Challenge yourself to push back against those thoughts. One way to do this is to identify the strengths of someone you know and admire, and consider whether you hold them to the same impossible standard.

Self-Control

I manage my emotions and impulses, which allows me to make thoughtful choices.

Confidence

I believe in my abilities and have positive expectations of success.

Flexibility

I adapt to change, adjust my approach, and think creatively in new situations.

Ambition

I have a strong desire and determination to achieve success and accomplish my goals.

Wisdom

I use knowledge and experience to make sound judgments and decisions.

Creativity

I think outside the box and generate original ideas.

Curiosity

I desire to ask questions, discover new things, and expand my knowledge.

Bravery

I face fear, uncertainty, or danger with determination and resolve.

Fairness

I believe in just treatment, and that everyone has equal opportunities.

Forgiveness

I let go of resentment and anger, choosing to understand and move on from a hurtful experience.

Gratitude

I appreciate and am thankful for the positive aspects of life.

Honesty

I am truthful and sincere in my words and actions.
